

COMING HOME

in the Restaurant Steirereck in the Stadtpark as Demi Chef de Rang

Being part of a team of the best is inspiring, educational, motivating, rewarding, collaborative, formative and challenging.

This special team is accepting more members:

In our house we are looking for personalities & hosts with a passion for their profession who have an appreciative approach to the unique products of our partners & suppliers and always with the goal in mind to create a special and unique experience for our guests

As Demi Chef de Rang, you will work closely with the service team and together you will ensure the well-being of the guests.

Authenticity and product honesty are deeply anchored in our philosophy. We act according to the motto hospitality: "The focus is not only on the guest, but also on friendship!

The community within our team is paramount, which is why every team member at Steirereck sees themselves as a cog in a large clockwork - because only with the help of interlocking cooperation can extraordinary goals be achieved and new paths opened up.
